Mr. Howard Boyd, Director
Registration Service
National Council, B.S.A.
New Brunswick, New Jersey

Dear Howard:

We would like to place the following in your confidential file and the attached letter is self-explanatory, I believe.

Prior Scouting background from our Council records shows his registration as a Scout in Troop 381; Assistant Scoutmaster in Troops 268 and 389; and last year in our Post 268 as an Associate Advisor.

He is 5' 8"; weighs 160 pounds; dark blond hair; age 24; and current address is 2114 Crawford Drive, Norristown, Pennsylvania.

He has lived in Norristown all his life except for military service of three years duration.

Trust that this will serve as all the information necessary.

Cordially yours,

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI RECTORY

NORRISTOWN, PA.

December 8, 1962

Mr. Robert Maynes
District Director
Valley Forge Council
Boy Scouts of America
Valley Forge Pa.

Dear Mr. Maynes,

I have carefully but discreetly investigated the complaints concerning Mr. Donald Wertman formerly associated with the Explore Post of this parish and as per our several conversations have found them to be true.

As you will recall, the complaints concerned certain improper actions between the previously mentioned and several boys in the Post. Without further elaborating on the details, I believe that it will suffice to say that the actions, if brought to the attention of the civil authorities would, in my opinion, lead to probable charges of 'corrupting the morals of a minor'.

It is neither the intention of this parish or me personally to bring this case to the attention of the civil authorities. The sole reason for this intention not to prosecute is a personal conviction that a public involvement of the case, now somewhat past, would serve no value with regard to correcting the damaged minds of the youth involved but would serve only to impress the unfortunate and degrading incidents more firmly in their minds.

I am, however, convinced that the party mentioned can no longer serve the good interest of youth and therefore, upon your suggestion, I am submitting this strictly confidential report in writing.

Sincerely yours,

TSBSA012048
